6. Management Policy

Basic management policy

The basic philosophy of our group companies is to remain indispensable to the local communities through our activities of providing a model of lifestyle to local residents. The company is working on diversifying its retail business in order to make stronger connections with customers and proceeding with a strategy for dominance in the Kansai area.

Mid- to long-term business plan and Challenges to be Addressed

The Japanese retail market is shrinking as a result of population aging, lower birthrates and population decline. In general, lots of companies with less competitiveness will not be able to continue their business, and just a few companies will be able to grow in this shrinking market. The company is proceeding with GP10 long-term business plan focused on sustainable growth of market share. The company positions Department Store Business and Supermarket Business as its core, and will continue to strengthen these businesses, since they have value which only bricks and mortar stores are able to provide and will be needed by society continuously.

The company's core businesses target daily life usage and opposite- extraordinary life usage. In addition to its core, the company aims to build an alliance network with other retailing companies in other business sectors in order to have connections with every area of the customer's lifestyle. This alliance network will attract more customers, therefore, it will contribute to expanding the company's profit by expanding the market share.

Basic policy concerning profit distribution

The company is aiming to become one of the leading companies in the Kansai area by making strong connections with customers amid the market shrinkage. Since establishing a strategy of 'business ecosystem', which has connections with customers' whole lifestyle, will take some time, the company has to continue to work progressively on its business plan. As a result, the company will be able to gain one and only competitive advantaged system. Temporary reduction in efficiency would be anticipated because of increasing assets ahead of profit growth through business restructuring, redevelopment and business integration. However, the company aims to sustain the growth of efficiency by raising profit levels brought from these activities. Furthermore, the company is working on ROE-conscious management by providing returns to shareholders commensurate with the level of profits.
